Such petition must also state the name, age, residence, and occupation of the applicant, and must be recommended by two (2) Royal and Select Masters, members of the Council to which such petition is presented.

Section 13.02 Must Be Affiliated in Lodge and Chapter. No Council shall receive the petition for the degrees of any Mason who is not affiliated with some regular Lodge of Master Masons recognized by the Grand Lodge of Iowa, Ancient Free and Accepted Masons and also with some regular Chapter of Royal Arch Masons recognized by the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Iowa.

Provided, however, that a petitioner for the Capitular Degrees may at the same time or a later date petition for the Degrees for the Council and ballot taken thereon, but no Degrees of the Council may be conferred on the petitioner until he shall have received the Royal Arch Degree. If the petitioner has not received the Royal Arch Degree within one year of the date of balloting on his petition for the Degrees of the Council, the ballot on his petition becomes void and a reballot must be taken or the fee refunded if request is made for the same.

Section 13.03 May Refuse to Receive Petition. A Council may, by a majority vote, refuse to receive a petition for the Degrees when presented, and in such case the fee shall be returned to the petitioner, and such refusal shall have the same effect as a rejection by ballot.

Section 13.04 May Withdraw Petition. A petitioner for the Degrees may withdraw his petition at any time before its reception by the Council and reference to a committee for investigation, but not afterwards.
Section 13.05 When Received. Petitions for membership may be received, referred, and balloted upon by a Council at either a stated or called assembly.

Section 13.06 Special Report of Committee. If a petition shall be presented and the committee thereon is convinced that the applicant is barred from acceptance by reason of residence, physical disability, not being a member of a Lodge and/or a Chapter, or other special reason which is an absolute bar to his becoming a member, such fact shall be especially reported, and the petition may be dismissed without a ballot if the Council shall so determine.

No candidate whose physical defects are such as will prevent him from conforming literally to all requirements of the several Degrees of Cryptic Masonry can be balloted on or received into a Council. A Candidate to be eligible for the Degrees must be able to conform to all the ceremonies required in the work and practice of Cryptic Masonry. The substitution of artificial parts or limbs for portions of his natural person shall not be a bar, provided such are under the practical control of the petitioner. Illustrious Masters and Councils will be held strictly accountable for the observance of the Law.

Section 13.08 Ballot Secret. All balloting on petitions shall be by balls or cubes, with the ballot box so arranged that each Companion may vote without the character of his ballot being known to any other member of the Council.

Any member of the Council may, at any time previous to the commencement of the conferring of the Royal Master Degree, object secretly to the Illustrious Master to the candidate's further advancement, and the objection shall have, when made, the same effect as an unfavorable ballot. The Illustrious Master shall not disclose the name of the objector nor shall the objector disclose his identity, but the fact that an objection has been made by a member of the Council shall be stated by the Illustrious Master in open Council at the next stated assembly, by his announcing that there has been an objection made and declaring the candidate rejected, and such statement and declaration shall be spread upon the records of the assembly.

Unless objection is raised by some member in attendance, all petitions may be balloted upon simultaneously.

Section 13.10 Re-Ballot. In all cases where but one negative ballot appears on the first spreading of the ballot, the Illustrious Master shall, to avoid mistakes, order a re-ballot, and if one negative ballot again appears, the candidate shall be declared rejected. In all other cases the first ballot shall be final.

Section 13.11 Re-Petition. If a candidate be rejected by a Council he may petition again to the same Council at any subsequent stated or special assembly thereof.

Section 13.12 Degree Within One Year. If any applicant for the Degrees shall be elected and fail to present himself for initiation within one year thereafter, his election shall be deemed cancelled and the fees returned upon request.
Article XIV. Affiliation and Membership

Section 14.01 Dual Membership Permitted. Any Companion who so desires may belong to more than one Council at one and the same time. This dual membership may extend also to one who currently belongs to a Council outside of this Grand Jurisdiction, if permitted by the other Grand Jurisdiction, if he so desires.

Section 14.02 Demit Must Accompany Petition. If a Companion wishes to change his membership and be continuously affiliated, he may file his petition with the Council in which he desires membership and with it a certificate of good standing, under seal of the Recorder of the Council of which he is a member showing that his dues have been paid for the current year, also a written application to his Council for a demit. If elected to membership in the Council petitioned, the Recorder thereof shall immediately forward said application for a demit to the Companion's Council and when the demit is received, shall file it with the petition and enter the Companion's name as a member of the Council as of even date with the certificate of demit. If the petitioner be rejected, the receipt for dues and application shall be returned to him.

Every applicant for affiliation shall present to the Council applied to, a petition, giving his age, residence, and occupation, and stating that he is a Royal and Select Master, and designating the Council in which he received the Cryptic Degrees, and the Council of which he was last a member, and also designating the Lodge of Master Masons of which he is a member and the Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of which he is a member. Such petitions must be signed with his own hand and recommended by two members of the Council to which he applies.

Section 14.04 Virginia and West Virginia. Royal and Select Masters who have received the Degree of Royal and Select Master in Chapters of Royal Arch Masons under the jurisdiction of the Grand Chapters of Virginia or West Virginia may be admitted to membership in Iowa Councils on certified copies of demits issued by such Virginia or West Virginia Chapters, provided the petitioner is then a member of an Iowa Chapter of Royal Arch Masons. Evidence of such Iowa Chapter membership shall be certified by the Secretary under seal of such Royal Arch Chapter.

Section 14.05 When Received. Referred. Reported Upon. Every petition for affiliation must be received at a stated or special assembly, must be referred to a committee of three Companions for investigation, and a report made thereon before ballot is taken.

Section 14.06 Ballot Required Demit Cancelled. The ballot upon a petition for membership shall be taken in the same manner as upon a petition for the Degrees, and no such petitioner can be elected to membership in the Council except by a three-fourths (3/4) ballot of the members present and voting. In the event of election to membership, the demit or evidence of former membership of the applicant shall be cancelled by the Recorder's endorsing thereon the fact of such election to membership with the date thereof.
Section 14.07 Certificate of Waiver. Any Royal and Select Master who may have made application for membership in a Council, and has been rejected therein, may apply to such Council for a certificate of waiver of jurisdiction, and if such certificate be granted by a majority vote of the members present, he may petition any other Council within this jurisdiction for affiliation, and, if elected, become a member thereof.

Section 15.03 May Be Remitted. If any Companion be financially unable to pay his dues, his Council, may, by motion duly passed and recorded, exempt him from payment of dues for the current year; but to exempt the Council for the payment of Grand Council dues upon such member, the fact of the passage of such motion and the date thereof must be included and certified to the Grand Council with the annual returns of such Council.

Section 15.04 Military Service. If a Companion enlists, or is already enlisted, in the active military forces of the United States or any of its allies, the Council, by vote of the members present, may remit the dues of such Companion, showing the record of such action in the annual returns of said Council.

When dues of any Companion are delinquent, the Constituent Council may direct the Recorder to notify the Companion of such delinquency and cite him to appear at a stated assembly of said Council and show cause why he should not be suspended for non-payment of dues. Said stated assembly shall be not less than twenty (20) days from the date of such service.
Section 15.07 Service of Notice. Service of such notice may be personal, that is, by delivery of a copy to the delinquent Companion, or by mailing a copy of said notice by United States Mail in sealed envelope with sufficient postage thereon and addressed to the Companion at his last known address. If the service is personal, service shall be complete when the delinquent Companion receives his copy of said notice. If service is by mail, service shall be complete on the date of the mailing of such notice. In either case the date and method of service shall be endorsed on a true copy of the notice by the Recorder and shall be entered into the records of the Council.

Section 15.08 Action to be Taken. If the Companion shall fail to pay his dues on or before the date of the stated assembly named in said notice or show good cause why he should not pay, the Illustrious Master shall declare him suspended for nonpayment of dues, which declaration shall be entered in the minutes of the assembly.

Section 15.09 If Delinquency Paid Within Year. If a Companion who has been suspended for non-payment of dues pays his delinquent dues within one year from the date of suspension, he shall be automatically reinstated to all of the rights and privileges of any Royal and Select Master.

Section 15.10 After One Year. No Companion who has been suspended for non-payment of dues for one year or longer shall be reinstated until after he has paid double the current dues, has petitioned for reinstatement, and has been elected to membership by two-thirds (2/3) favorable ballot of all Companions present who are entitled to vote. Such petition shall not require recommenders or reference to a committee.

Section 15.11 No Bar To Complaint. Nothing contained in this Chapter shall in any way retard or prevent any Companion whose name is on the delinquent list for non-payment of dues from being complained against, tried, and punished for any offense committed against Cryptic Masonry.

Section 23.02 How Invoked. The jurisdiction of the Grand Council can only be invoked upon the complaint of a Royal and Select Master in good standing and a member of a Council in this jurisdiction.

Section 23.03 Facts in Petition. A complaint against a Council must be by petition, clearly and concisely setting forth the facts respecting the particular matter or matters complained of, and signed by the complainant. Such petition must be filed with the Grand Master, who shall, after examination of the same, advise the complainant whether he deems the charges sufficient.

Section 23.04 Action. Copy Served. If the Grand Master shall advise the complainant that the charges are deemed sufficient, the complainant must at once serve a copy of such complaint on the Illustrious Master and Recorder of the Council complained against and file proof of such service with the Grand Master.

Section 23.05 Time to Answer. The Council accused shall, within forty (40) days after being served with a copy of the complaint, file with the Grand Master its answer to the complaint made against it.

Section 23.06 Evidence Taken. Immediately after the Council has answered, or, if it shall fail to answer immediately after the expiration of the time to answer, the Grand Master shall, in person or by duly accredited commissioner, proceed to hear and cause to be written down all such material evidence as may be offered which shall tend to prove or disprove the charges contained in the complaint.
Section 23.07 Refer to Committee. Upon the completion of the taking of the evidence, if in his opinion sufficient evidence of irregularity has been shown to warrant a trial thereon, the Grand Master shall refer the whole matter to some standing or special committee to report to the Grand Council thereon at the next annual assembly.

Section 23.08 When Dismissed. If the complaint, when made, is by the Grand Master deemed insufficient or frivolous, he shall dismiss the same without taking any evidence; and if, after the evidence be taken, it clearly appears that the charges were unfounded, the proceedings shall then be dismissed without reference to a committee.

Section 23.09 Against Officer. Charges against an officer of the Grand Council or the Illustrious Master of a Council for offenses alleged to have been committed while holding such official position must be made by the same persons in the same manner and to the same officers as complaints against a Council, except that if the charges be against the Grand Master, they shall be presented to the Deputy Grand Master and Grand Principal Conductor of the Work and the procedure therein shall be the same as is provided in cases of offenses by Councils.

Section 23.10 Against Other Royal and Select Masters. Charges against a Royal and Select Master for an offense committed, and over which jurisdiction has been refused to be exercised, must be made by the same persons in the same manner and to the same officer as a complaint against a Council, and the procedure therein shall be the same, with the exception that the accused cannot be required to answer until evidence be produced tending to show that the local Council has refused to exercise jurisdiction, nor can the accused be found guilty unless that condition precedent be established by a preponderance of the evidence.

INSTALLATION OF COUNCIL OFFICERS

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companions, the installation of officers in a Council marks the completion of one year's work and the beginning of the next. It impresses upon us the democratic nature of our institution and teaches the peculiar art of laying aside the insignia of rank with willingness and gracefulness and of assuming the honors and responsibilities of office with humility. As the present officers have relinquished their stations in token of the completion of the past year's duties, we are once more reminded of the equality that should always exist among the members. Companion Recorder, you will announce the names of the officers elected and appointed for the ensuing year. Companion Marshal, as the names are called you will place the officers in position.

(After all are in position, with Illustrious Master on right of line west of Altar, Marshal says:)

MARSHAL: Illustrious Master, I present these worthy Companions who have been selected as officers of this Council for the ensuing year and are now ready to be installed.

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companions of ____________ Council No., you see before you the Companions who have been selected to serve as officers of this Council during the ensuing year. If any Companion knows of any just cause why they, or any of them, should not be installed, let him now make it known or forever hold his peace. That we may have the needed strength and guidance to accomplish the task before us, let us invoke the blessing of Deity.

(Gives knocks  , all rise) Companion Chaplain, you will lead us in prayer.

CHAPLAIN: Oh, Thou Grand Master of Heaven and Earth, we approach Thee with reverence and implore Thy blessing upon these Companions who are about to assume the duties of their important offices. Grant them firmness of mind and kindness of disposition, that they may govern the affairs of this Council with justice and moderation. Bless them, O Lord, and bless those whom Thou hast placed under them. May Thy richest blessing rest upon all our Companions wherever dispersed throughout the world. Amen. (Audience is seated)

(The above prayer is optional. Any suitable prayer may be used.)

INSTALLING OFFICER: My Companions, before proceeding to officially install you, it is necessary for you to take upon yourselves a solemn obligation. You will, therefore, each of you, place your right hand over your heart, say "I", your name, and repeat after me: "do solemnly promise on my honor as a Royal and Select Master, that I will support and maintain the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Iowa, the By-Laws of this Council, and all ancient Masonic usages; that I will, to the best of my knowledge and ability, perform the duties of the office with which I am now to be invested."

(Officers drop hands and are seated)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion Marshal, you will present the Illustrious Master elect for installation.

MARSHAL: Illustrious Master, I present Companion________________ who has been elected to serve as Illustrious Master of this Council and is now ready to be installed.

INSTALLING OFFICER: My Companion, I feel great satisfaction in installing you into the office of Illustrious Master of this Council. It is a station highly honorable to him who diligently and faithfully performs the important duties connected therewith; but before investing you with the honors and responsibilities of your office, it is mandatory that I propound to you certain questions to which, at the close, I must require your unequivocal answers.

1. Do you solemnly promise that you will use your utmost endeavors to correct the vices, purify the morals, and promote the happiness of your Companions?

2. That you will never suffer your Council to be opened unless there shall be present at least nine Select Masters?

3. That you will not suffer any person to receive the degrees in your Council in whose integrity, fervency and zeal you have not entire confidence?

4. That you will not acknowledge or hold communication with any Council that does not work under some regular and constitutional authority?

5. That you will admit no visitor into your Council who has not been regularly and lawfully invested with the Council degrees?

6. That you will faithfully observe the By-Laws of your Council and the Constitution and Laws of the Grand Council?

7. That in the government of your Council you will administer justice tempered with mercy?

8. That you will pay due respect and obedience to the Grand Officers when duly installed and will sustain them in the discharge of their duties?

9. That you will faithfully attend all assemblies of the Grand Council upon receiving proper notice thereof?

Do you submit to all these requirements and do you promise to observe them faithfully?

ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER ELECT: I do.

INSTALLING OFFICER: With entire confidence in the purity of your intentions, and in the integrity of your character as a Select Master, I now declare you duly installed as Illustrious Master of this Council. You will now be invested with the apron and jewel of your office.

(Marshal invests him with apron and jewel)
Having been elevated by the voice of your Companions to the highest station in their gift, you are now to assume the functions of that office. It is your duty to set an example of diligence, industry and fidelity; to see that the officers associated with you faithfully perform their respective duties, and that the interests and reputation of your Council are not endangered by imprudence or neglect. The important trust committed to your care will call for your utmost exertions and the exercise of your best faculties. As the representative of Solomon, King of Israel, it will be your duty to recite the secret tradition, illustrate the moral principles of our order, cherish the worthy and hold in due veneration the ancient landmarks.

I now present you with the Charter under which your Council will work; you will receive it as a sacred deposit and never permit it to be used for any other purpose than those expressed therein; and at the expiration of your term you shall duly transmit it to your successor in office. Receive also the Constitution, Laws and Regulations of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Iowa, together with the By-Laws of this Council. Familiarize yourself with them and keep them handy at all times for ready reference. Receive in charge the Holy Bible, Square and Compass, the three great lights of Masonry. May they guide you through your year as Illustrious Master and remind you of the whole duty of man. You will now assume your station in the East.

(Installing officer conducts new I.M. to his station) (removes hat)

I cover you with that mark of distinction, which agreeably to an ancient custom, you are to wear while presiding over your Council.

(Installing officer will call up Council () and say:)

Illustrious Master, behold your Companions. Companions, behold your Illustrious Master. Let us salute him with the Public Grand Honors of Masonry by three times three. (Done)

Finally, my Illustrious Companion, I place in your hand this gavel, the emblem of your authority. Wield it, my Companion, with prudence and discretion.

(New I.M. seats Council (*) and may proceed to install the remaining officers or he may invite the Installing Officer to continue. In the latter case he will uncover and surrender the gavel until the completion of the installation ceremonies)

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion Marshal, you will present the remaining officers in the order of their rank.

CHARGE TO DEPUTY MASTER

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion_______________, the duties of your office will require your constant and earnest attention. As the representative of H.K.T. with the Illustrious Master in Council you are to occupy the second seat in this Council, and it will be your duty to aid and support your chief in all the requirements of his office. In his absence you are to preside and perform his duties; in his presence you are to assist him. In this important trust it will be your duty and should be your pleasure to justify the confidence of your Companions. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.
CHARGE TO THE PRINCIPAL CONDUCTOR OF THE WORK

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________, as the third officer in the Council, it is your duty to sound the silver trumpet at early dawn and eve of day, when the sun's first and last rays gild the mountain tops, to announce high twelve and proclaim the time for labor and refreshment. In the absence of both your superiors you will be called upon to preside. As the interests of the Council should never be permitted to suffer through the lack of preparation by its officers, you will allow me to urge upon you the necessity of being always prepared and qualified to meet such an emergency. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE TREASURER

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________, you have been elected to the very important and responsible office of Treasurer of this Council and the qualities which should distinguish you are accuracy and fidelity in carefully preserving the property and funds of the Council and in rendering a just account when required. Your interest in this Council, your attachment to the Craft and your known integrity of character are a sufficient assurance that the duties of your office will be faithfully performed. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE RECORDER

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________, you have been elected to an important office in this Council which will require your discriminating judgment as to what is proper to be written. The possession of the requisite qualities has designated you as a suitable Companion for this office, and I doubt not that you will discharge its duties with diligence and fidelity. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE CHAPLAIN

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________, to you is committed the devotional exercises of our assemblies and to perform the sacred functions of your office at our public ceremonies. I do not doubt that you will discharge the duties of your present appointment with steadfastness and perseverance in well doing. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE CAPTAIN OF THE GUARD

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________, guard well your post and suffer none to pass it but the select, the faithful, and the worthy. Obey the commands of your chief and be near at hand to see them duly executed. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.
CHARGE TO THE CONDUCTOR OF THE COUNCIL

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion_____________ , in the discharge of the duties of your office, and with which you are doubtless familiar, be fervent and zealous. You will thus merit the respect and esteem of your Companions and the approbation of your own conscience. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE STEWARD

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion______________ , your duty is to guard the entrance to the Secret Vault with sleepless vigilance and suffer none to pass it without permission of the Illustrious Master. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE ORGANIST

INSTALLING OFFICER. Companion______________ , you have been appointed Organist of this Council. As harmony is the strength and support of all institutions, so may the harmony furnished by you strengthen and support every gentle and ennobling emotion of the soul and be an inspiration to your Companions. You will be invested with the jewel and apron of your office and be conducted to your station.

CHARGE TO THE SENTINEL

INSTALLING OFFICER: Companion__________ , as the first application from visitors is usually made to the Sentinel, it is therefore essentially necessary that you exemplify that spirit of friendliness which is manifest in the Council. It is your particular duty to prepare the Council Chambers for the Assemblies and to care for its paraphernalia. You will be invested with the jewel, apron and instrument of your office and be conducted to your station.

ADDRESS TO THE ILLUSTRIOUS MASTER

INSTALLING OFFICER: Illustrious Master, you now occupy the highest office in the power of your Companions to bestow. You have accepted a trust to which is attached a responsibility that will require your best efforts to discharge with honor to yourself and satisfaction to your companions. You are to keep a watchful eye over the general conduct of the Council, see that the members are properly instructed and that due solemnity be observed in the practice of our rites. Moreover, you should be an example to your officers and members which they need not hesitate to follow, thus securing for yourself the favor of Heaven and the approval of your Companions.

(Installing officer calls up Companions
INSTALLING OFFICER: Companions, from the very nature of the constitution of every society, some must rule and others obey. While justice and moderation are required of the officers in the discharge of their official duties, subordination and respect are equally demanded of the members. The relation is reciprocal. The interests of both are inseparable. Without mutual cooperation the labors of neither can succeed. A house divided against itself cannot stand. Let brotherly love, therefore, prevail among you. Let each be emulous of the others in promoting peace and unity and in striving to see who can best rule and best obey. And may He whose watchful care is over all who put their trust in Him ever keep and preserve this Council to the glory of His name.

Companion Marshall, you will make the proclamation.

(Marshal goes to west of Altar, raises right hand and says:)

MARSHAL: In the name of the Grand Council of Royal and Select Masters of Iowa, I proclaim the officers of ____________ Council No. duly installed. All interested will take due notice and govern themselves accordingly.

(Marshal drops hand to side and returns to place on sidelines)

(Installing officer presents gavel to I.M. who puts on hat and seats the Council*)
